

LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Paragraphs Which Tell of the Happenings of Local Moment in Greater St. Joseph. Anything Which Has Occurred Deserving of Local Notice Can be Found in These Columns.

After brief funeral services the body of the late Miss Margery McCord was placed in the McCord family vault in Mount Mora cemetery Wednesday.

FOR XMAS PHOTOS, GIST-SHULTZ
Thousands of men have not had a picture made since childhood days. Surprise and delight your friends with one made by Gist-Shultz.—Adv.

J. A. Whiteford lectured Thursday in Columbia, Mo., on "School Problems" before the school of education of the University of Missouri.

Everything you need for any kind of Painting, Wallpaper, Chandler's Paint & Glass Co., 417 Edmond St.—Adv.

J. H. Dust of Linneus, Mo., finally claimed the $15 check and ear of yellow corn left over from the recent farm congress.

F. P. Meyer, dentist, has moved his office to 407 Corby-Forshee building.—Adv.

The double funeral of Richard Clinton and his wife, Maria Clinton, aged 82 and 81 years, respectively, was held Wednesday morning, interment in Mount Olivet cemetery.

For stenographic or typewriter work of any description call on Miss Deliah Warburton, Room 602, Corby-Forshee building. Telephone 1276.—Adv.

At the annual meeting of the directors and officers of the Buchanan Hotel association at the Hotel Robidoux all the retiring members were re-elected and financial reports submitted stated that the conditions were good.

For the best values in Whiskies try Hilgert's. Also his 25c Merchants Lunch, 207 South Sixth Street.—Adv.

S. V. Hinckley sneezed too violently Tuesday evening and caused two ligaments to snap in his left side. He is a very large man, weighing almost 300 pounds. He will be confined to his home for several weeks.

Feeney & Downey for best Plumbing and Gas Fitting, 1002 Frederick Ave. Phone 116.—Adv.

The St. Joseph Grain Exchange held its annual meeting, election of officers and banquet at the Hotel Robidoux, Tuesday, selecting J. W. Craver as its president for the ensuing year.

Don Riley's Motor Inn. Storage and best repair department in city. Ladies' rest room and free check room in connection. Seventh and Jule.—Adv.

C. E. Rush, city librarian, assisted in the dedication of the new library at Columbia, Thursday, representing the Missouri Library association.

St. Louis newspapers announce the promotion of John L. Hohl to the position of general agent of Denver and Rio Grande railroad in that city. Mr. Hohl's promotion comes from assiduous attention to his duties formed early when he was in the service of the Burlington in St. Joseph.

S. W. Corbin, M. D. Eye, ear, nose and throat. Lincoln building.—Adv.

L. Cohen, a South End tailor, forgot to lock the door of his establishment when he went to lunch in the room to the rear of his shop, and a thief entered, secured fifteen pairs of trousers and departed.

Kodak finishing and popular price photos, Majestic Studio, Electric Theater Bldg., Edmond.—Adv.

William Gilliam, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gilliam of 2609 Seneca street, has been afflicted with a disease practically unknown to the consulting physicians in attendance.

Robidoux Shoe Repair Co., 414 Francis. Phone 1011. Free call and delivery.—Adv.

Joseph Slatnik, proprietor of the Bee hat store here, but a resident of Des Moines, was stricken with a severe illness due to a motor car injury some time ago and had to be removed to the Ensworth hospital.

The best baby photos. Gist-Shultz.—Adv.

Deputy County Clerk Brinton has had quite a few sales of hunting and fishing licenses for the year 1916. A license purchased now can be of more use to the purchaser than at a later date in the fishing and hunting season.

The thaw Tuesday brought the frost to the surface and where concrete or stone walks existed, puddles of "sweat water" collected and resembled the appearance of having been flushed with a hose.

The Boulevard Investment company, consisting of the heirs of the late Judge Henry Ramey, has taken over for $25,000 consideration, the Ramey home, on Noyes and Frederick boulevards, and adjacent grounds.

Tomorrow night the largest and most successful poultry show ever held in St. Joseph will close at the Patee Market house. Every variety of chicken raised is on display.

The postoffice this week has been swamped with incoming mail, and so heavy has been the carriers' loads that delivery has had to be foregone before some of the routes were finished. The government regulations permit a carrier to work only eight hours a day.

William F. Moyer, a well known business man of Maryville, was in the city Wednesday.

John T. Cox, a mill product dealer of Graham, called on a number of friends here Wednesday.

Joseph Stapleton and John McCarthy, itinerant blacksmiths, got real heavy and demolished the front of the Capitol hotel while out on a rampage Monday, but Tuesday morning left $5 each with Judge Allee, besides paying for hotel damage.

Milton J. Bauer, a well known Republican politician and attorney, left St. Joseph Wednesday evening for Hyannis, Neb., to take up ranching. He has 640 acres of land and expects to raise cattle, alfalfa and also do a little law work on the side in Arthur, the county seat. Mrs. Bauer will join him in the spring.

A good roads campaign will be vigorously pushed by the St. Joseph Automobile club Tuesday night at a called session. Ideas for co-work with the farmers in the move will be advanced by a number of auto enthusiasts.

Maud Wilson, one of the soiled doves at 521 South Fourth street, answered the door bell Wednesday evening and admitted a "caller." He desired Lizzie King, madam, and the Wilson woman replied that she was "Lizzie King." The caller pulled a revolver and shot her twice. Her condition is alarming owing to her excessive weight, 300 pounds. The assailant escaped.

South St. Joseph police are called nearly every week to quell riots among the foreign element, who begin discussing the European war and get too full of patriotism and commence hostilities. In the last fight Wednesday, one Hungarian, one Englishman and a Syrian came out battle scarred and paid fines in the police court.

Residents along Bon Ton street were entertained Tuesday evening by an electrical display somewhat out of the ordinary. A line of intermittent flashes from the top wire of the electric light company's property, from Union to Clay streets was visible to onlookers, increasing as the wind gained in pressure; cause, the molature on the branches of the trees connecting with the wire grounded the circuit and created the sparkling flashes.

Either a new fad or haste in dressing created a furore on Eighth and Edmond streets this week among the gender feminine. A dashing young lady, pretty and petite, with tasty clothes and charming in manner—so such so that the usual gang of callous rubbernecks who roost there all wanted "individual room"—attempted to enter an automobile and was hindered by the edge of her skirt catching an obstruction; result, disclosure of two trim ankles clothed, one in a vertical black striped hose and the other with horizontal stripes, one inch wide. A lot of sighs from the "see-everything" gang and a titter from the ladies.
